

FUN AND TALENT GALORE 'LIVE AT INORBIT'

~ Inorbit Vashi invites you to unleash your talent and have fun ~

Mumbai, August 5, 2009: Inorbit Malls continues to entertain its patrons in a unique and exhilarating event aptly named Live At Inorbit, at Inorbit Vashi.

Through this event, Inorbit Mall will provide a platform to budding and talented people to perform and exhibit their skills in front of a live audience. This fun-filled day, which marks the beginning of the festive season, will kick off in month of August '09 with a series of scintillating, pulsating and mesmerizing activities.

This fortnightly activity is a one of its kind opportunity for the local community as well as experienced artistes to show their talent. Live At Inorbit is not only about enjoyment but also about a display of a diverse range of talents - from musicians, dancers, theatre group performers, stand-up comedians to mimicry artists. The performers' area will be demarcated in the mall as the 'Live At Inorbit' zone.

This distinctive initiative will provide Navi Mumbaikars an opportunity to participate and witness its biggest ever talent show. This event will be a memorable day for all its loyal patrons enabling them to perform and enjoy to the fullest at the same time.

First Activity - 8th August:

Secondary Skills, a team of talented Software Engineers will be the first performers who will showcase passion for music at the Vashi Mall.

The group is in the corporate music scene a year and has won number of accolades and appreciations. Providing the much needed platform by Inorbit Mall, Secondary Skills now looks to reach out to a larger audience.

Comprising of 3 members, Vivek from Jammu, Shinjan from Kolkata and Rishab from Mumbai are working in the same organization and have specialized in playing contemporary English and Desi rock...

So rush to your favourite mall this Saturday to spot this multitalented team performing live and show what they are truly made of!!
